John 11:45-57 – The Green-Eyed Monster

My Story

1. Have you ever been accused of something that you didn't do, or perhaps accused someone else in the same way? What happened, and what was the end result?

Digging Deeper

2. Why do you think people had such opposite reactions (vv. 45-46) to the miraculous raising of Lazarus to life?
3. What does this account reveal about the value of miracles for bringing people to faith in Christ?

4. In what ways was Caiaphas both wrong and right in his prophecy about what Jesus' death would accomplish?

Reflection

5. What sorts of things can Christians sometimes focus on which might distract us from fulfilling Christ's mission/purpose in the life of the Church?
6. What are some of the greatest inconveniences about being a Christian for you? How can God's Word and other Christians encourage you to remain faithful?

SERMON NOTES

John 11:45-57 – The Green-Eyed Monster

Taking the Next Step

Jesus died so that we might live. He substituted His life for ours in order to gather together all who would believe in Him for salvation. Take a moment each day this week to thank God for the life He offers you through faith in Christ.
